

CH502 – Church History: The Second Millennium

Short Syllabus

Instructor: Stephen Dolsey-Andrew, Ph.D.

Course description

This course surveys the Western Church from the time of the first Crusade (1095) down to today's latest renewal movements. "The Church reformed must always reform itself" is a central theme. It addresses the Western (Roman) Church at the height of its power, the crisis that triggered the Reformation and the "great ideas" of Luther and Calvin. Then come the challenges of the Enlightenment, the rise of science, pivotal American experiences and today's challenges. Culture, theology, and grass-roots spirituality dynamically interact in this broad overview showing the Holy Spirit leading his people through the many ups and downs.

Estimated workload: For a student to do well in this course, the student will need to invest a total of 150 hours, or about 12 hours per week of reading, participating on the website, and writing papers.

Required textbooks

Three texts will be needed. Please obtain these books before the course begins. To find the lowest prices, you may find it helpful to use www.bookfinder.com.

Spickard, Paul R. and Kevin M. Cragg. A Global History of Christians. Grand Rapids: Baker, 1994. ISBN 0-8010-2249-5 (approx. $6 used to $21 new).
